Dear Mel Jones

Re: evidence for Chartered History Teacher Programme

This is to confirm that Rich Kennett is a regular visiting lecturer as part of the University of Bristol history PGCE programme.

He has contributed to the programme every year for the last 8 years. He has lead sessions on:

- the role of ICT in supporting students' learning in history
- teaching history GCSE.

In addition, in his role as organiser of the Bristol School' History Forum, he has lead professional development events which have become part of the core history PGCE programme. These have focused on:

- 2015: assessment after levels
- 2016: sources in history teaching
- 2017: historical interpretations
- 2018: knowledge in the history curriculum

He makes a key contribution to the Bristol history PGCE and the students always rate his sessions as excellent.
