

BRISTOL HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION

A LEVEL HISTORY
CONFERENCE

AFRICAN KINGDOMS

What? An afternoon of lectures and workshops on African Kingdoms, c1400–c1800

Who? For sixth formers studying OCR A Level African Kingdoms and teachers who want to improve their teaching of African Kingdoms both at A level and KS3

Where? Humanities Complex, University of Bristol

When? 13.00–16.00, Friday 25th April 2025

Lectures:

Professor Toby Green (King's College London) 'The Kingdom of Benin and the politics of restitution'

Professor Jose Lingna Nafafe (University of Bristol) & Dr Esteban Alfaro Solas (SOAS) 'Lourenço da Silva Mendonça and Beatrix Kimpa Vita in the history of the Kingdom of Kongo in West Central Africa'

Professor Kate Skinner (University of Bristol) 'The Kingdom of Dahomy'

Teacher workshops will run alongside lectures

Please contact Mary Feerick, Secretary of the Bristol Branch of the Historical Association to express your interest in attending:
maryfeerick58@gmail.com