

What questions do you want to ask about the life of the poor?

What does this suggest about the life of the poor?

What can you see?

