

A workhouse documentary

Your task is to design the trailer for a documentary about children in the workhouse. The documentary is aimed at school pupils your age. You should think carefully about the historical content of the trailer as well as the direction (i.e. the style it is made in). Use this sheet to record your ideas. On the left, choose some images that you will use for the trailer and on the right, write a commentary that will provide the voiceover when the trailer is played.
