Dear Sir/Madam,

We would like to offer you the opportunity to buy a brand new documentary for use in primary schools to help teach year six pupils about...It is called...and is available for only £9.99 if you order today!

Why is this video perfect for schools?

(Explain who made the documentary, why it was made and whom it was made for. Why does all this make it perfect for education?)

Why shouldn't schools buy the Oliver Twist films instead?

(Explain why the films are not as good for education. Explain who made them, why and who for. Why does that make them less useful for education?)

Why do different types of film show different things?

(Explain how the purpose of a film or the audience it is for affect what it shows.)

Yours truly,

Dear Sir/Madam,

We would like to offer you the opportunity to buy a brand new documentary for use in primary schools to help teach year six pupils about...It is called...and is available for only £9.99 if you order today!

Why is this video perfect for schools?

This documentary is perfect for schools because it was made by...which means that...

Also, in the video children will see...rather than...

It has been made for...which means that the film is more accurate because...

Why shouldn't schools buy the Oliver Twist films instead?

The Oliver Twist films are not as useful to schools for studying workhouse life. One reason is because of who made them. For example...This affects what it shows about workhouse life because...

Another reason they are less useful for education is...

Also, the films were not made for children studying in schools. One was made for...This affects what they show because...

Why do different types of film show different things?

We would like you to buy our documentary because...

Films are not the best things to watch in history lessons because...

However, you might buy the films if...
