

What makes the start of
Michael Winterbottom's film
Jude
so powerful?

How does the opening of the film make you feel?

How has Michael Winterbottom created this feeling?

How does the film reflect reality?