The fire is spreading all over London. It started at a bakers shop, at pudding lane. The butcher had left his oven on. The fire went on and stopped at the end of pudding lane. The mother and the baby jumped out of the window at the bakers shop. It stopped at 20000 hours. It started in 1666. The wind blew the sparks and the fire went bigger and bigger.

② The fire spread round the house and the baker was in bed but then he heard the fire coming closer.

③ The fire had burnt the houses in London. The people had to be awake all night the margre said that we have re-build the houses. We are going to start building 16,000 houses in London. The fire just stopped today in the afternoon over 25 churches were burnt down one person died yesterday and the fire was so hot that sick people

④ There was one shop that was a sweet shop and children were in and the children didn't die.
