

This is an account of one of Henry's journeys through England in 1510.

The King was....,"exercisyng hym self daily in shotyng, singyng, dancyng, Henry wrastelyng, casting of the barre, plaiyng at the recorders, flute, virginals and in setting songes, making of balettes, and dyd set ii goodly masses every of them fyve partes."